

Who is Your Cambridge Food Hero?

October 24th 2013 is the 3rd Annual Food Day. Food Day is a nationwide celebration of healthy, affordable, and sustainably produced food as well as a grassroots campaign for better food policies.

We are looking for Cambridge Food Heroes to honor this Food Day. A Food Hero could be someone who:

- Helps promote healthier diets and/or access to healthier food
- Supports local farms, gardens, or urban agriculture
- Works to reduce hunger or fights for food justice
- Supports sustainable agriculture or fishing
- Fights for better working conditions for food workers or farm workers
- Nominees can work in the schools, own a business, be a chef, a student, a food writer or educator—it can be someone who has done food hero work for years or is just getting started. It can be anyone who helps make food better for all of us!

Let us know who you think should be a Cambridge Food Hero! Submit the name and a few sentences about why your nominee is a “Food Hero.” The Food Day 2013 committee will choose from submissions and the Food Heroes will be honored at a special ceremony on Food Day.
